ABOUT

CONDUCTOR

Joe Bongiovi earned his Bachelor of Music in Film Scoring from Berklee College of Music in Boston and a Master of Arts Teaching from The University of The Arts in Philadelphia. For the past 19 years he has been the band director at Princeton High School where he directs the renowned Princeton Studio Band and produces their recordings. During his time at Princeton High School, the jazz program has won 10 state championships and 16 national championships. In addition to conducting the Princeton University Wind Ensemble, Mr. Bongiovi has served as the musical advisor to The Princeton University Band since the fall of 2018. He is the founder and director of the Philadelphia Jazz Orchestra, an all-star high school and college ensemble that performs locally and tours Europe each summer. The Philadelphia Jazz Orchestra hosts summer educational camps for students in grades 3-12 as well. Mr. Bongiovi is also the founder of the National Jazz Festival which has developed into the largest high school jazz festival in the country and is held in Philadelphia each spring.

The Princeton University Wind Ensemble

The Princeton University Wind Ensemble (PUWE) was originally founded in 1997 by Rick Modica '99 and was reestablished in 2023 by Jacob Jackson '26, Wesley Sanders '26, and Henry Frelich '25. PUWE is dedicated to performing challenging, diverse, and important wind band repertoire both from the established western canon and from contemporary composers, with a particular emphasis on performing works by underrepresented composers. PUWE is entirely student run, and all decisions made on behalf of the ensemble are made by our board of student officers. Thank you for joining PUWE for this concert!
